

Table of Contents

Preface Danny Praet & Pascal Vanhoecke	7
In Defence of War: the Bhagavad Gītā Eva De Clercq	15
‘No country has ever benefited from a protracted war’ China and the Art of War Bart Dessein	23
Buddhism on War and Peace Some Thoughts and Examples Ann Heirman	33
Greek and Roman Philosophers on War and Peace Danny Praet	47
Iustum Bellum and Jihad in Medieval Philosophy Danny Praet	77
Niccolò Machiavelli The Logic of Conflict, against the Logic of War Sonja Lavaert	105
Michel de Montaigne Philosophy as Inner Struggle Alexander Roose	121

While Reading Kant's 'Perpetual Peace' Emiliano Acosta & Gertrudis Van de Vijver	131
Kant's Conditions For Peace A Critical Approach Tomas Baum	145
Marxism and the Question of War and Peace Jan Dumolyn	155
On War and Warriors: Friedrich Nietzsche Benjamin Biebuyck	165
State Terror Gie van den Berghe	181
The Memory of Peace Maarten Van Alstein	187
Commemoration Gie van den Berghe	201
Truth Commissions A Philosophical Approach Dietlinde Wouters	205