

Content

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| CONTRIBUTORS   | 9   |
| PART I: CONDUCTING TIME USE RESEARCH   | 11  |
| Time reveals everything  | 13  |
| Theun Pieter van Tienoven • Joeri Minnen • Bram Spruyt   |     |
| Time use and experience sampling method research:how complementary?   | 27  |
| Jiri Zuzanek   |     |
| Changes, challenges and transitions over time in collecting timeuse data  | 53  |
| Joeri Minnen • Theun Pieter van Tienoven   |     |
| Time use during the pandemic and beyond: augmented diarymethods to capture daily life in the twenty-first century | 79  |
| Jonathan Gershuny • Michael Bittman  |     |
| A road full of challenges: how time use surveys became anessential part of statistical production                 | 105 |
| Juha Haaramo • Hannu Pääkkönen • Iris Niemi  |     |
| A view on time through the eyes of Luhmann's theory of socialsystems  | 125 |
| Werner Schirmer  |     |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| PART II: USING TIME USE DATA  | 149 |
| Trends in working time in France, 1985-2010: a decomposition approach   | 151 |
| Laurent Lesnard • Jean-Yves Boulin  |     |
| The role of time use studies in the recognition of unpaid work  | 177 |
| Lyn Craig • Liana C. Sayer  |     |
| Feelings of time pressure despite leisure time? Exploring the effect of different time use and leisure time characteristics on subjective time pressure | 197 |
| Francisca Mullens • Petrus te Braak   |     |
| Time use research and media studies: From mutual inspiration to a joint research outlook  | 219 |
| Ike Picone • Ruben Vandenplas   |     |
| Is travel time wasted? Evidence from the MOTUS time use survey in Flanders, Belgium   | 239 |
| Imre Keseru • Cathy Macharis • Joeri Minnen • Theun Pieter van Tienoven   |     |